Louisiana Legislature Begins 2022 First Extraordinary Session

BATON ROUGE, LA - The 2022 First Extraordinary Legislative Session will open today, February 1, 2022, at 5:00 p.m. The session will focus on the redrawing of legislative districts, a process known as redistricting.

Redistricting happens every ten years, after the population is counted by way of the Census. The data collected determines the districts of Congress, Public Service Commission, the Board of Elementary and Secondary Education (BESE), state Supreme Court, state Senate, and the state House of Representatives.

Final adjournment will be no later than 6:00 p.m. on Sunday, February 20, 2022.
